

I'LL RESTRUCTURE SADA – PRESIDENT-ELECT, NANA AKUFO-ADDO

The President-Elect, Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo, has announced plans to restructure the Savannah Accelerated Development Authority (SADA) and use it to facilitate economic transformation and bridge the development gap in the three regions of the north.

Mr. Akufo-Addo, announced this on Thursday when he called on the Overlord of the Mamprugu Traditional area, the Nayiri, Naabohogu Mahami Abdulai Sheriga, at Nalerigu in the Northern Region to show appreciation for their support in the just ended presidential elections.

"I have come here today, on my part, to also say thank you for the support and prayers that you gave for me. God listened to your prayers and that is the basis for our victory," he said.

He also assured his commitment to improve the standard of living in the area and appealed to them to pray to God to give him the energy to fulfill the promises he made to them.

"I want it to be said, when the history of our country is being written, that it was in Akufo-Addo's time that Ghanaians began to enjoy widespread prosperity across the length and breadth of the country. And for that to happen, I am taking your advice that I have to bring everybody together, all the peoples of Ghana, without discrimination, as one united body to go forward and make Ghana the country of the dreams of our ancestors," he said.

"It is possible and we can do it, with unity, courage and circumspection, we can do it. I pray to Almighty God that he gives me the opportunity to make this happen," he added.

Nayiri Sheriga, in a remark urged the President-Elect to remain focused during his tenure of office, and work to improve the standard of living of Ghanaians.

"Your victory came by dint of hard work and focus. So, please remain focused and continue to work hard, and I am confident the good Lord will grant you success," he said.

The Nayiri wished the President-Elect and his incoming government a successful tenure of office and urged Nana Akufo-Addo unite all Ghanaians in order to move the nation forward.
